

WHAT?

- UNBREAKABLE Pink, Purple & Orange WEEK! - A 5-day hybrid (live and virtual) event for women of every culture, ethnicity and socio-economic status focusing on Breast Cancer/Women's Health Issues, Domestic Violence and Home Repair. This unique, life changing event will impact women in Central Alabama and throughout the nation.

WHO?

- UNBREAKABLE PPO Weekend is presented by the Women Under Construction Network (WUCNetwork), a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization created to provide programs and services that support underserved women, their children and the elderly in Birmingham, Alabama, and surrounding areas. Additionally, WUCNetwork programs are reaching and impacting women in 62 cities and 18 states, with a mission of Repairing Homes, Building Women, Changing Lives!

WHY?

- Women are dying! The UNBREAKABLE weekend was designed to educate and mitigate the emotional, physical and health tragedies experienced by women as a consequence of a lack of finances, a disparity in resources and limited education in the areas of breast cancer, women's health issues and domestic violence. UNBREAKABLE is a human service/awareness campaign to raise funds and awareness for underserved woman within the WUCNetwork, and women nationwide.

HOW?

- With the generous support of corporations, churches, organizations and individuals, WUCNetwork will present four dynamic events to engage, educate, mentor, and celebrate women in the midst of doing what WUCN does best, empowering and teaching women how to repair their homes with actual tools, while repairing their lives.
