

DAY CARE/AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Bread Center (Birmingham Regional Empowerment and Development Center): 205-796-0550
1708 Spencer Avenue Bham 35214

*provides free afterschool care on-site at the following 6 schools only: Norwood Elem., Glen Iris, Martha Gaskins, Wilkerson Middle, Ossie Ware Middle, and Putnam Middle.

*at this time due to COVID, everything is done virtually for the kids after school

-offers fun activities

-financial literacy

-homework assistance

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Birmingham: 205-939-5590

1901 14th Ave South Bham 35205

*visit website for information: www.bbbsbhm.org

Child Care Central: 205-941-0115

85 Bagby Drive Bham 35209

*offers Full Time child care for infants and preschoolers all the way up to children 13yo residing in the following counties: Jefferson/Shelby/Walker/Blount/St. Clair

*visit the website: TCRchildcarecorporation.org - click on CCC Subsidy to get Checklist

*lobby closed now due to COVID but applications are located outside of the doors and can be returned to the same area

Childcare Resources: 205-945-0018

244 W Valley Avenue Suite 200 Bham 35209

*helps to provide quality care and education of children by offering information, education, and assistance to families, child care providers, and the community

*visit website for information: ccr-bhm.org

YMCA Youth Center: 205-324-1643

2400 7th Avenue North Bham 35203

*serves children 5yo – 13yo; services currently offered on-line

*visit website to register and get additional info: YMCAbham.org

*still offering School Support Academy 7am – 6pm for children 5-13yo (go to website for info)

YWCA: 205-322-9922

309 23rd St. North Bham 35203

*YWCA Child Development Center serves homeless, low-income, and working class families.

*visit website for additional information: ywcabham.org

*Look under Programs and go to Child Development Center and you can contact Morgan Hargrove